

KingView

-- An Easy-to-learn Easy-to-use Low Price Powerful SCADA Software

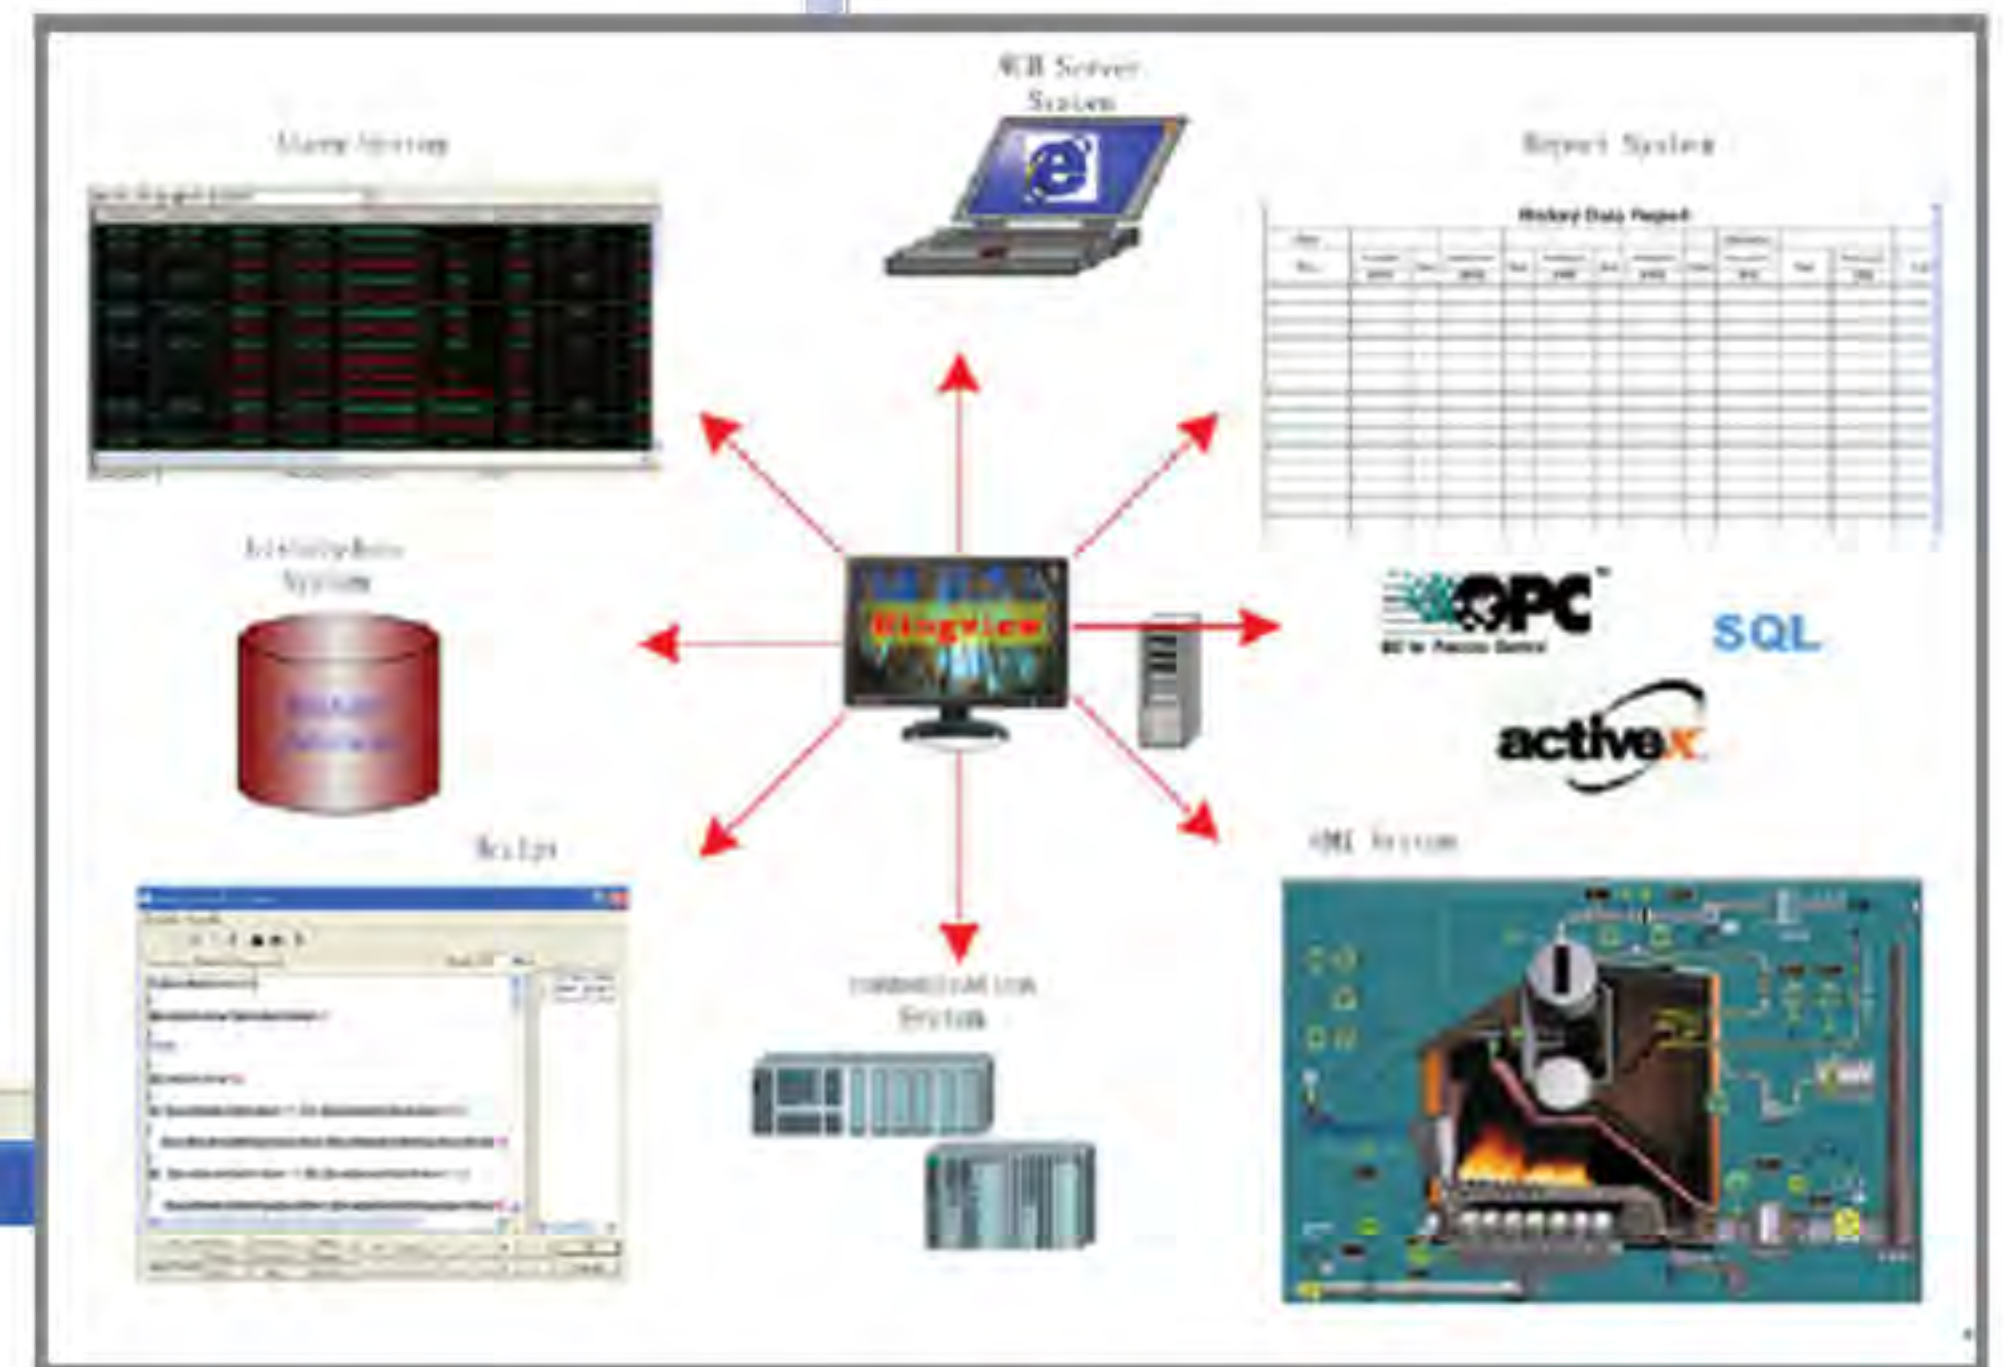

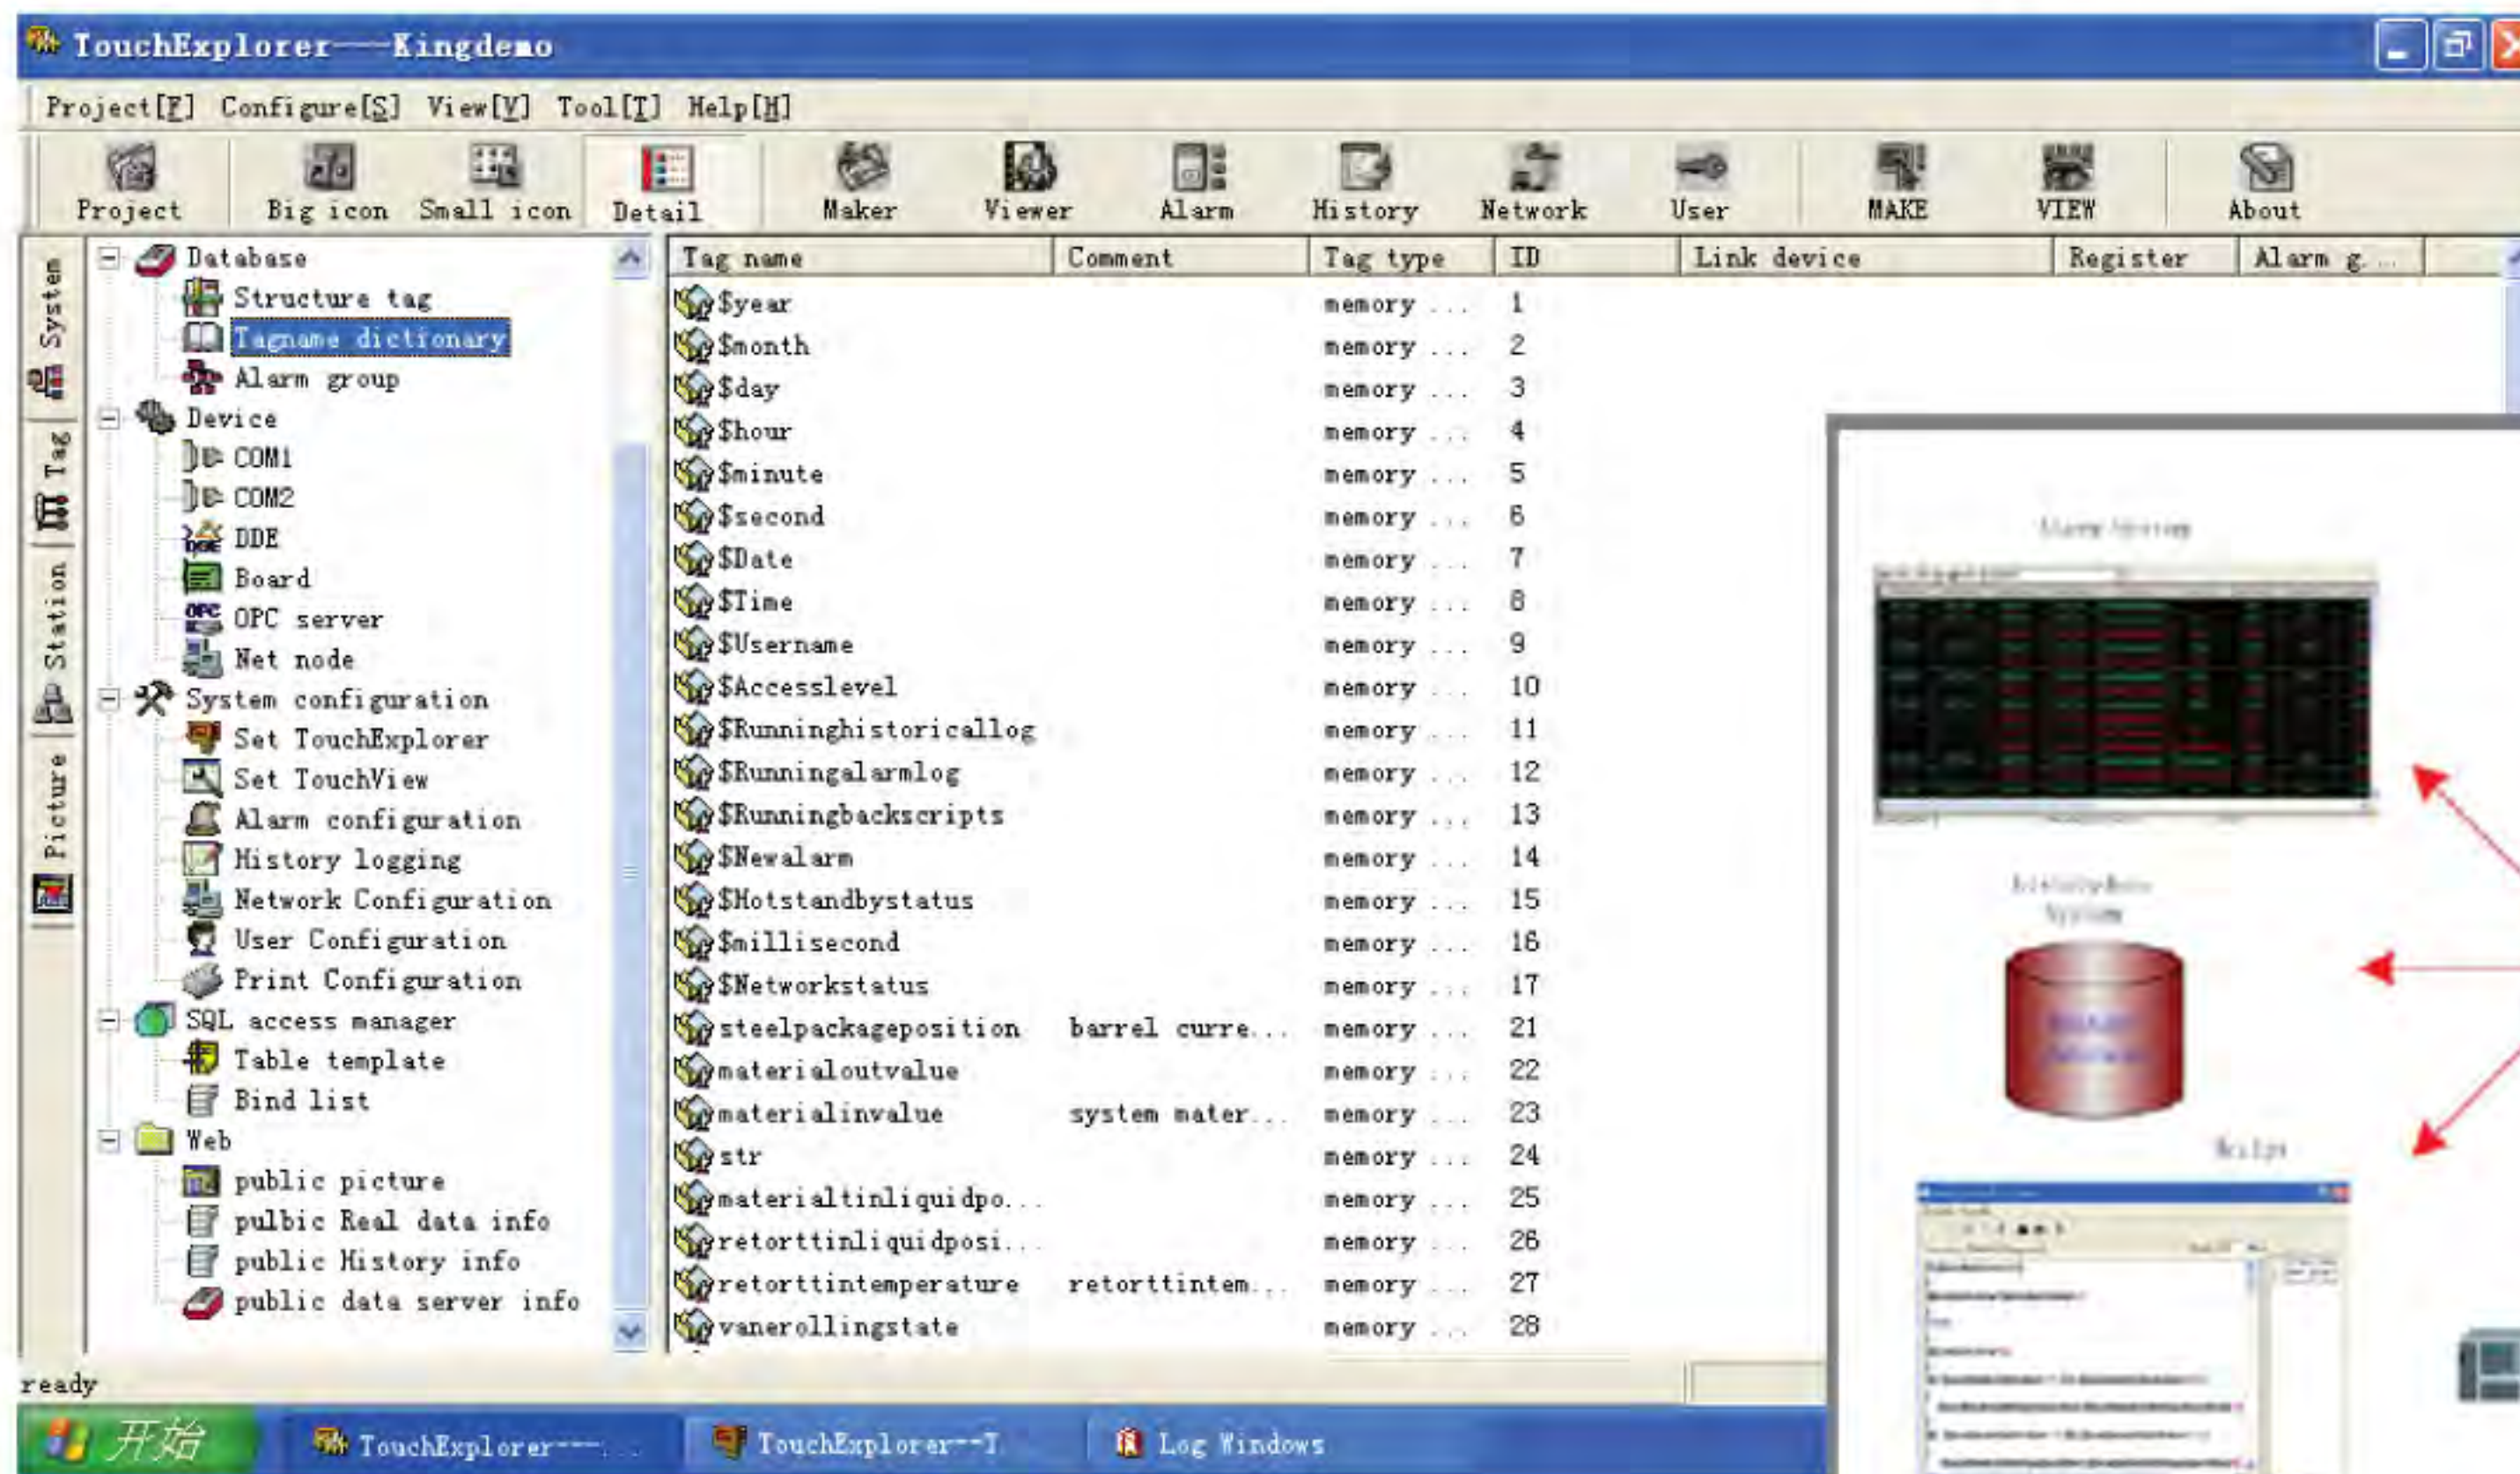

Overview

KingView is the SCADA product designed for small and medium projects to control and monitor automatic equipment and processes. It is the very first product from ICP DAS USA. KingView is easy-to-learn and easy-to-use, full featured, and low cost, which gives it great competitive advantages in the market. Since first released on 1995, KingView's cumulative sales have reached over 100,000 sets. KingView is the most famous SCADA software in Asia and the top market winner in China.

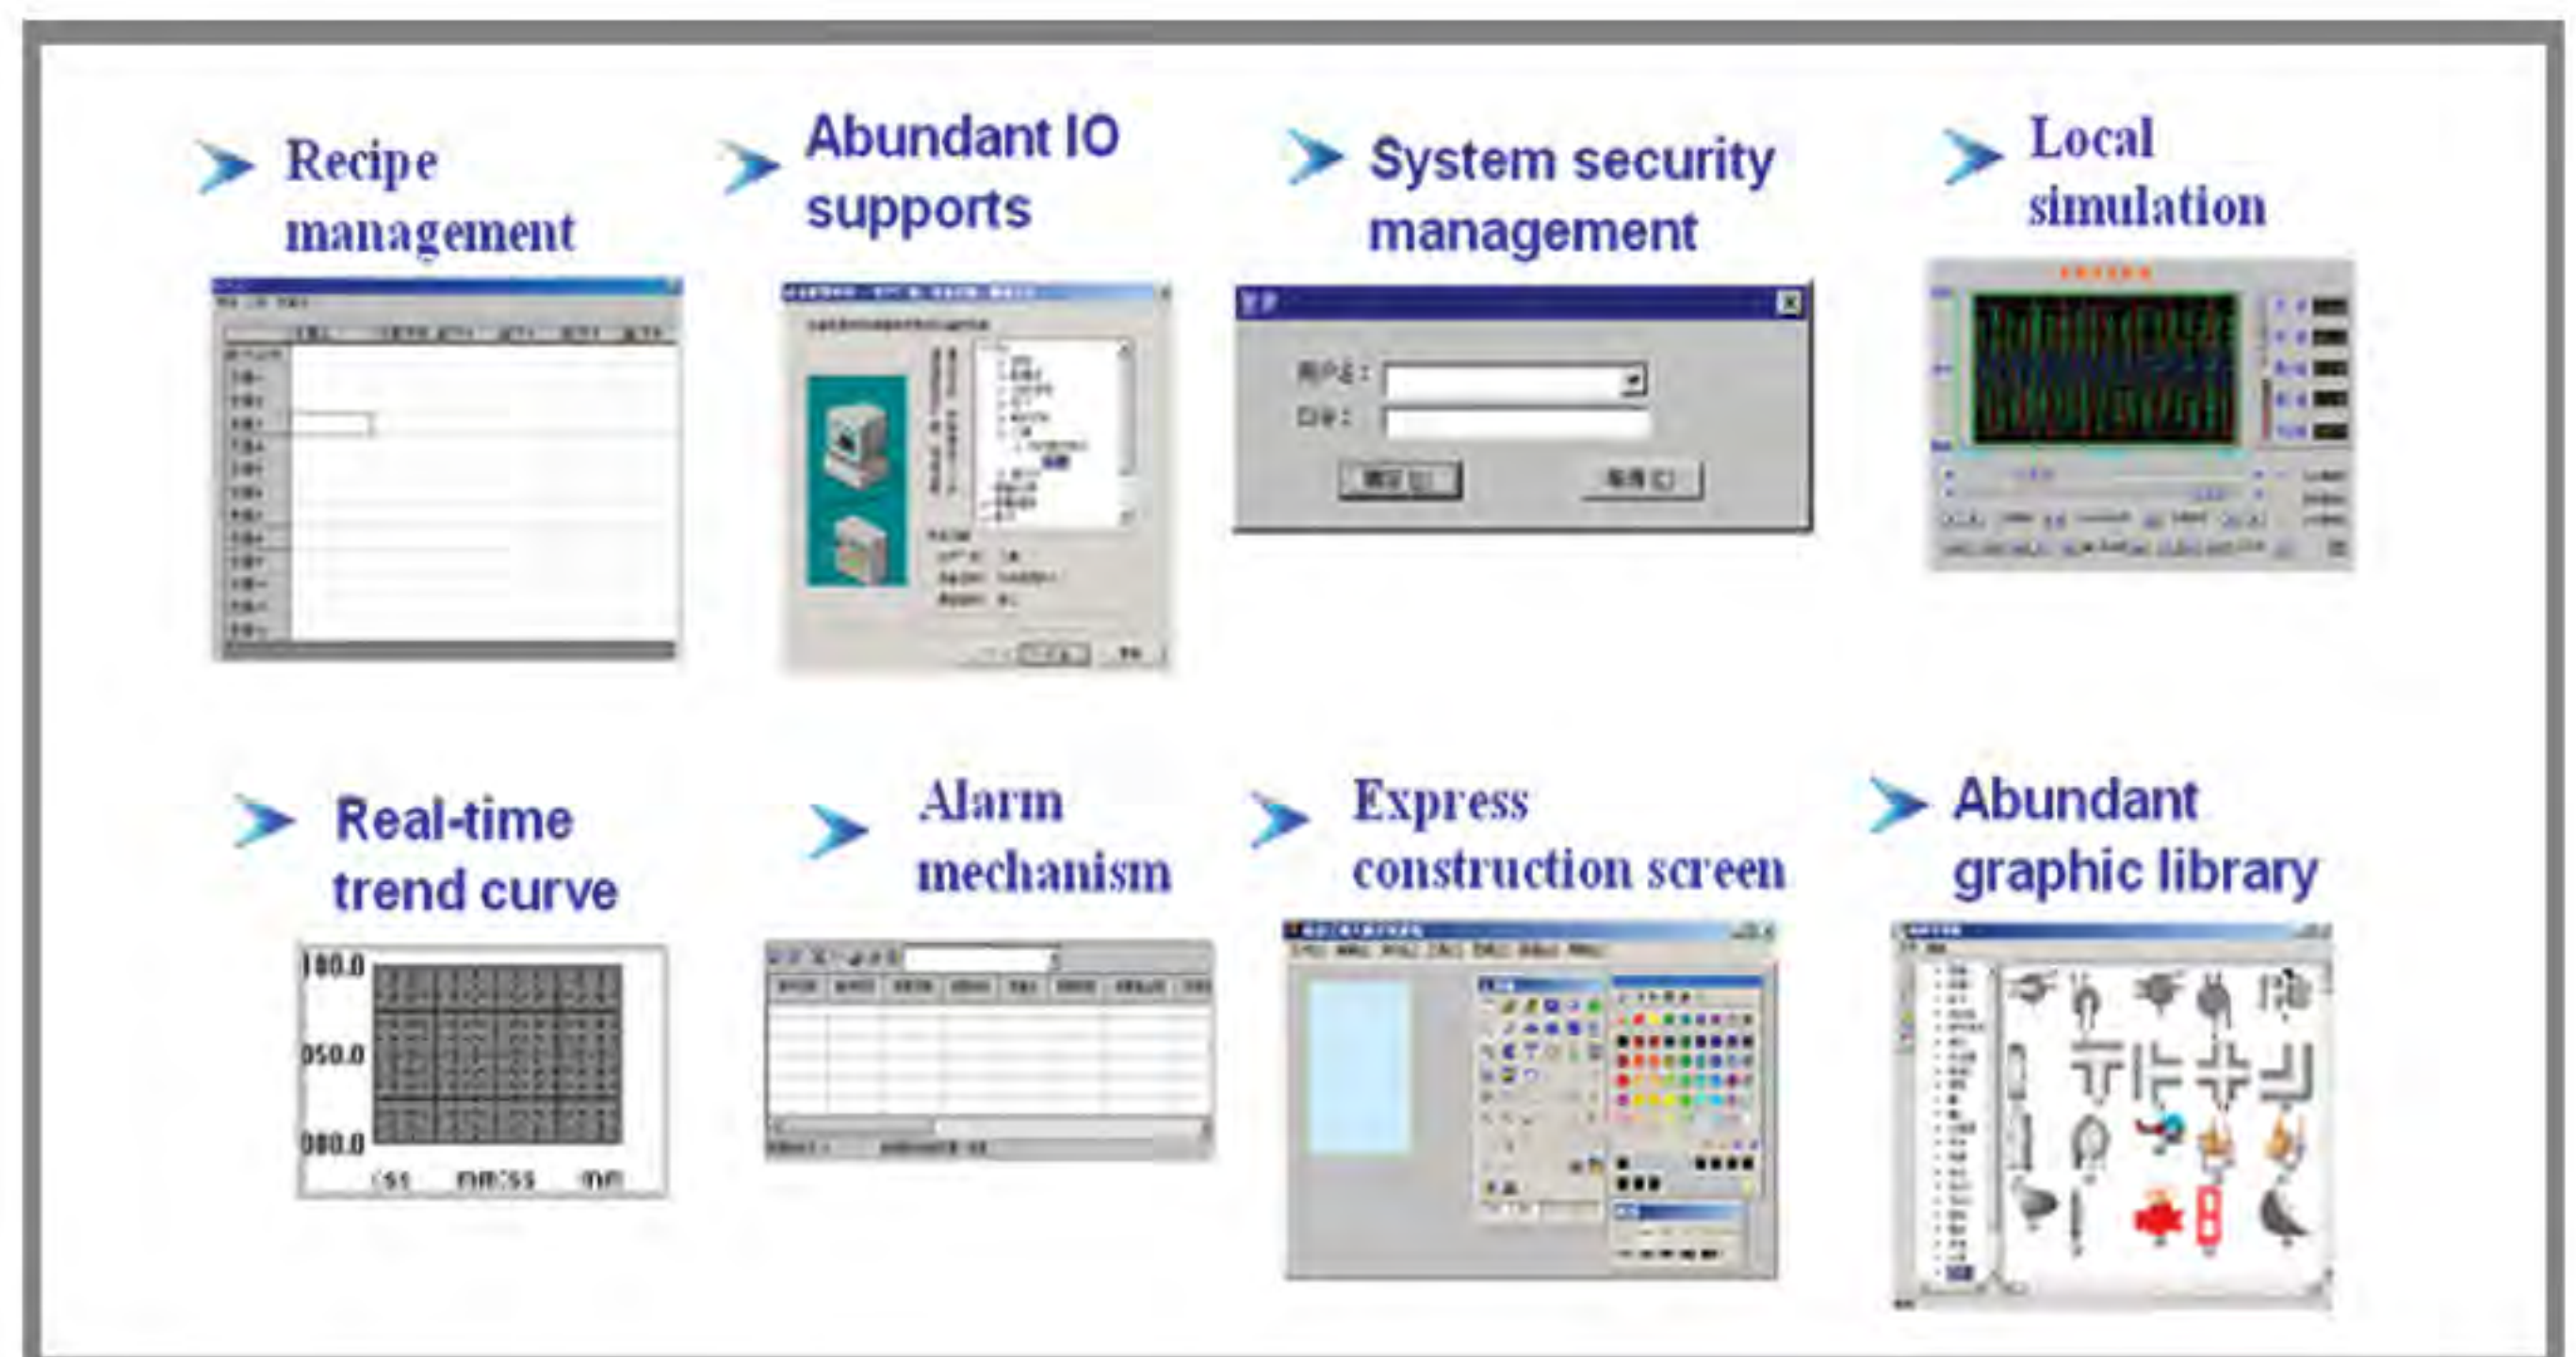

Highlights

- Visualized user interface
- Batch build I/O points
- Distributed alarm and historical data storage
- Can connect to virtually any automation equipment and system with customized drivers

Key Functions

- Flow chart monitoring
- Script editing function
- Real-time trend monitoring
- Alarm management function
- Historical data management
- Report display function
- Web publishing function

Comprehensive customization services

ICP DAS USA provides product customization services for customers to meet their unique needs for brand equipments, combined with KingView's core structure. ICP DAS USA has 20% customers using customized products by now, including: Siemens Building (Tianjin), Omron, Advantech, Tsinghua Tongfang, and Toshiba, etc. In the next 10 years, WellinTech expects to increase the proportion of customers with customized services to 40%.

1508 W Pacific Coast Highway
 Harbor City, CA 90710
 1-888-971-9888
 www.icpdas-usa.com